"Death and Taxes: An Estate Planner's Guide to Navigating a Changing World"

Zachary B. Wiewel, JD, LL.M. (Tax)

Licensed Texas Attorney

Zach Wiewel is a licensed Texas attorney practicing estate planning and probate at Texas Trust Law. Born and raised in Austin, he graduated from St. Michael's Catholic Academy. Zach, his father, and both of his brothers are all Eagle Scouts. Zach earned his bachelor's degree in Marketing from Texas A&M University, graduating with honors. After college, Zach moved to Washington, D.C. to attend Georgetown Law School where he graduated in the top 10% of his class and worked on Capitol Hill for the then-Ranking Member of the Ways & Means Committee, Congressman Kevin Brady. Next, Zach moved to New York City where he earned his LL.M. in Taxation from NYU School of Law. Zach is an avid traveler, having been to over forty nations on six continents. Most recently, Zach completed a 3-week trek to Everest Base Camp.

Even well-designed insurance plans can fail without proper estate-planning integration. This session highlights how asset-protection risks, Secure Act changes, special needs beneficiaries, and estate tax exposure can dramatically alter outcomes. This session equips professionals to spot planning opportunities and collaborate more effectively with advisors and attorneys.
